February Snacks

Dear Parents,

We are excited to begin our new daily behavior system for the month of February, which incorporates social studies, math, and behavior expectations. Each day your child receives a sticker, he/she will earn a penny. Please be aware that only your child's teacher should be putting in and taking out coins. Thank you for support!

At Home

Try weaving a story with your child. Think of an interesting beginning for the story. After a while, stop and ask your child to continue the story. If the story lags, you take it again and liven it up a bit before handing the storyline back to your child. Consider recording your stories as you get better at the strategy.
