What your Kindergartener is Learning:

Language Arts:

Domain (Listening and Learning):

We are working on our last unit on American Symbols and Presidents. We will talk about Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson, Teddy Roosevelt and Barack Obama.

Skills: This week we will continue working on Unit 10. We will work on the magic "e" with words that have the u_e sound.

We will continue our Scott reader and work on comprehension from these stories.

We are reviewing all the tricky words we have learned this year!

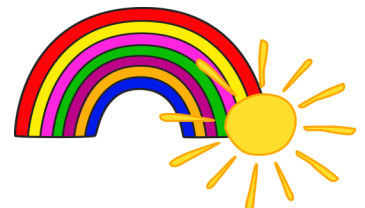

Math

This week we will be spending sometime with the 100 chart and will complete some "Step up" to First grade Lessons. This is also the final push with Puppy Dog Math so keep working on those facts.

This week we will also talk about Jane Goodall and Casey Jones!

Please see the back of this newsletter for more information!

Presidents and American Symbols:

Proclaim: To announce for the public to hear

Serious: Not cheerful or smiling

Expert: Someone who knows a lot about a subject

Governor: The elected leader of a state

Accomplishment: Something that was done successfully or well

Determined: Firmly trying to follow through with a decision

Reminders:

The end of the year is quickly approaching. We are busy working on our end of the year celebration. Please let your classroom teacher know if you plan on leaving before school is out.

Some dates you don't want to miss:

May 12– Evening of the Arts!

May 17– Cerreta Candy Factory Field Trip!
