IMPACT Awards

Celebrating Small Business

CONGRATULATIONS 2008 IMPACT AWARD RECIPIENTS!

The Greater Phoenix Chamber is proud to recognize small businesses that have made an impact.

Howard
Fleischmann Sr.

SMALL BUSINESS OF THE YEAR

Community Tire & Auto Service Specialists

Service-oriented automotive repair provider.

Community Tire & Auto Service Specialists has grown to more than seven stores in three cities through innovative marketing, honesty and integrity. Likewise with its commitment to community, whether hosting fundraising events or simply giving of their time, Community Tire & Auto Services Specialists has become synonymous with the word for which it is named.

Lynn-Paige

INNOVATION AWARD

PerfectPower

Provider of alternative energy solutions.

Lynn-Paige's goal has been to make solar power a mainstream energy source. With her team, she developed a foolproof financial picture for the use of solar electricity. By finding a logical way to appeal to the budget sense of utility users, Lynn-Paige has grown PerfectPower, Inc. to a substantial player in the energy market.

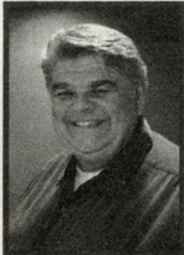

Ginger Clayton

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT AWARD

Elontec

Network, telecommunications and relocation service provider.

Ginger Clayton took her passion for business operations to create Elontec, a company that moves businesses forward through technology, telecommunications and relocation services. In addition, her passion for community service save her the opportunity to be board president of CASA, Center for Prevention of Abuse and Violence.

Greg Miller

Pam Miller

RESPONSE TO ADVERSITY AWARD

Challenge Charter School

First official core knowledge school in Arizona.

With their passion for putting kids first in educational decision making, Pam & Greg Miller founded Challenge Charter School. They started with just over 100 students, and invested everything they had. Today with over 600 students, the school is recognized for high academic achievement and service to the community.
